Mrs. Mary E. Sheets, Bap. Feb. 20, 1896

Over the 5th and 12th of this month I filled Brother Haskins' pulpit at Johnstown while he was away over-looking the financial department of Pennsylvania Missions.

During the month of June I took in by relation at McAlisterville, Mrs. J. B. Bardo, who in her maiden days was one of Brother Holsinger's compositors on the Family Companion published at Tyrone before the division. She knew little of the Progressive movement, that having taken place since her marriage and residence in Lycoming county, where she now resides. She is a remarkably intelligent woman, and the mother of two promising children. Many will recognize her best by the name of Mary Hostetler. During the same month I baptized two good mothers of large families at Atkinson's Mills, Mifflin Co., and on the 2nd inst. held a grand love feast in that vicinity, which is a hopeful outlook to McVeytown.

I am now in Juniata Co., at one of McAlisterville's favorable out points. In a day I go to that town to make final preparations for our camp meeting to be held there, beginning the 23rd inst. It is already extensively announced and widely circulated. Immense crowds are expected. Bro. E. E. Haskins will be present during the entire enterprise and do the principal part of the speaking. The people have created a favorable impression of him, and anxiously anticipate his spiritual blessings. Those withing to attend the meetings will get off the cars at Mifflin and take a conveyance to McAlisterville. Lunch and tenting on the grounds. One of the main purposes of this movement is to secure funds for the erection of a church house. The members here are worthy of our most careful attention. They are making a great effort to help themselves.

Enclosed find two dollars ($2.00) for which please send me 200 copies of the doctrinal number of the EVANGELIST as soon as published, for distribution during our camp. Address me at McAlisterville, Juniata Co., Pa.

FROM MT. ZION CHURCH, PA.

Mt. Zion Church at Stauffers, Pa., is still alive, and is not dead, as it has been reported by some of our enemies. We hold services every two weeks, and prayer-meeting every Thursday evening, and our Sabbath-school every Sabbath morning at 10 A. M., and are doing fine work for the cause. We have taken back our church and are paying the debt off without any difficulty. The people at Bridgeport sympathize with us in our past troubles, and are helping us out of it. We expect to hold communion services in the near future. We ask the church at large to pray for us that we may hold out faithful and that the day may soon come that we can own our church without any indebtedness upon it. The church is working together in harmony and union.

THE LEEDY REUNION.

We hereby extend a pressing invitation to every Leedy family and all their connections by marriage, to be present, or be represented at the Leedy Reunion near Ankneytown, Knox Co. O., on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1896, in honor of our pioneer fathers and mothers, and to strengthen in each other's breast the spirit of brotherhood. We request our relatives in the East and West, in the North and in the South to send the writer a complete genealogy of their respective families. We want to trace the Leedy genealogy back to the time our ancestors came to the United States. Who can give us the information? "That thou doest, do quickly."
